

Amazing Opportunities!

Do you want to work with cutting-edge technology? Do you want to be a part of America's energy solution?

The Kansas oil and natural gas industry needs you! We are seeking talented students who want to thrive in a challenging, face-paced and dynamic environment.

We invite you to explore the Oil Field Training program through Pratt Community College. The training is FREE! Contact Scott Jackman, Pratt Community College Oil Field Training Program Coordinator at 620-450-2255 or email Scott at scottj@prattcc.edu.

Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association

105 S. Broadway - Suite 500
Wichita, Kansas 67202-4262
(316) 263-7297 Fax (316) 263-3021
800 SW Jackson Street—Suite 1400
Topeka, Kansas 66612-1216
(785) 232-7772 Fax (785) 232-0917
www.kioga.org

Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association

Do you want to be a part of America's Energy Solution?

FREE Oil Field Workforce Development Initiative

A Career in the Kansas oil and natural gas industry

Energy is a fundamental part of our universe.

Kansas Oil & Gas
Energy for the Future

Energy powers machinery and is an essential raw material for many common products.

We use energy everyday to do our work, warm and cool our homes, fuel our cars, cook our food and play our music.

The current and future demands for energy are enormous. As Kansas' oil and natural gas industry tries to supply ever-increasing demand, we are looking for the next generation of energy industry leaders.

The Kansas oil and natural gas industry is a dynamic and unique industry that offers special qualities that appeal to many individuals. The Kansas oil and natural gas industry provides focus and adventure! If these exciting opportunities sound good to you, contact us today to begin your FREE training and start your career in this dynamic industry!

Financial Reward

Entry level salaries in Kansas' oil and natural gas industry are excellent! Enjoy the financial security and rapid growth our industry provides. Some representative salaries include:

- Business Operations Specialist - $57,660
- Computer Operators - $32,850
- Driller - $56,000
- Drill Leader - $100,000
- Rotary Drill Operators - $38,860
- Roustabout - $47,500
- Service Unit Operators - $33,380

Cutting Edge Technology

The Kansas oil and natural gas industry uses state-of-the-art technology to constantly improve performance. Whether we are shooting 3D "pictures" to virtually walk inside the earth or guiding drilling rigs with joysticks, advanced technology is leading the way. From a driller to a roustabout, the opportunities are endless.

Opportunity Awaits

Kansas' oil and natural gas industry offers a variety of job opportunities for both men and women looking to attend college or enter the workforce after high school. If any of the following apply to you, consider a career in Kansas' oil and natural gas industry:

- Enjoy working with people
- Enjoy working outdoors
- Are fascinated by state-of-the-art technology
- Excel at math and/or science
- Thrive on challenges
- Adapt easily to change
- Looking for a job with excellent compensation & career progression opportunities

Career Paths

Energy is an essential part of everyday life and Kansas' oil & natural gas industry provides a multitude of career opportunities including:

- Accounting
- Driller
- Engineer
- Business/Finance
- Geology/Geophysics
- Information Technology