Oil & Gas Day Breakfast

The Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association (KIOGA), Eastern Kansas Oil & Gas Association (EKOGA), and Kansas Petroleum Council (KPC) invite you to enjoy a Kansas Country Breakfast on us Thursday, February 4, 2010 from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. The breakfast will be served in the Dillon House in Topeka. Come and enjoy scrambled eggs, biscuits & sausage gravy, hash browns, sausage links, bacon, fresh fruit, pastries, juices, coffee, & more!

Be sure and stop by and visit our exhibit where you can find valuable information about how advances in science and technology is helping the Kansas oil and gas industry fuel your community, fund the state of Kansas, and confront our nation's dangerous foreign energy independence.. Also, the breakfast provides an opportunity to visit with several Kansas oil and gas producers to share ideas and challenges, network with friends, and just enjoy yourself!
