

U.S. Department of Transportation Office of the Secretary of Transportation

Corporate - Pipeline Safety Compliance Training

The U.S. Department of Transportation's (US DOT) Transportation Safety Institute conducts Corporate Pipeline Safety Compliance Training specially designed for the energy industry. This course will familiarize participants with US DOT pipeline safety regulations and serious safety violations. If you are responsible for oversight of pipeline safety and regulatory compliance, this course will be invaluable to your success. Upcoming trainings are listed below:

Pipeline Safety Compliance Training - Liquid (3 days) $1895

February 5-7, 2019 - Oklahoma City, OK

Topics include Title 49 CFR Parts 194-195

- Accident & Other Reporting
- Jurisdiction & Rural Gathering Lines
- Construction & Welding
- Operations & Maintenance
- MOP & Pressure Testing
- Control Room Management
- Integrity Management Program (IMP)
- Operator Qualification (OQ)
- Enforcement
- Corrosion Control & Breakout Tanks

Pipeline Safety Compliance Training – Gas (3 days) $1895

March 5-7, 2018 - Oklahoma City, OK

Topics include Title 49 CFR Parts 191-192

- General Construction Issues
- Routine Operation & Maintenance
- Pressure Regulation Corrosion Control
- Non-Metallic Pipe
- Odorization
- Compressor Stations
- Regulated Gathering Lines
- Control Room Management

Visit the TSI website at <https://tsi-dot.csod.com> or email PipelineSafetyCompliance@dot.gov.

This course can be taught at your location. Also, Transportation Safety Institute can develop and deliver professional safety training to fit the specific needs of your organization or agency. Your customized training program is just a phone call away at (405) 954-4500 or (800) 858-2107.